FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Alpharetta Restaurant Week Happening February 19-25, 2017

ALPHARETTA, GEORGIA (February 6, 2017) – With so many tasty restaurants participating, there is something to please everyone’s inner foodie during Alpharetta Restaurant Week. This weeklong celebration of Alpharetta’s restaurant scene will take place February 19-25, 2017.

Whether you are craving one of your favorite restaurants or are in the mood to try something new, there is a restaurant offering the perfect cuisine to make your taste buds jump for joy. Participating restaurants currently include: Alpine Bakery, Benihana, Butcher & Brew, Cabernet, MADE Kitchen and Cocktails, Mittie’s Café on Main, PURE Taqueria, Sage Woodfire Grill, Salt Factory, South Main Kitchen, Spice Brick Oven Kitchen and Vinny's on Windward.

For an updated list of participating restaurants, visit www.awesomealpharetta.com.

Restaurants have a variety of options on prix fixe menus for lunch and dinner. Most menu prices are $15 for lunch and $25 for dinner. (These prices do not include tax, beverage or gratuity).

Reservations at restaurants are recommended if possible. Browse the menus, pricing and a complete list of participating restaurants on the Alpharetta Restaurant Week page at www.awesomealpharetta.com.

“Alpharetta is filled with several locally owned and chef-driven restaurants,” said Janet Rodgers, president and CEO of the Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau. “Events like Alpharetta Restaurant Week highlight these eateries and give locals and visitors the chance to try out a new restaurant or re-visit one of their favorite spots and try something new on the menu.”

With limitless dining options, exciting food events and authentic culinary experiences, Alpharetta has gained the reputation as the foodie destination of the Southeast. Whether it is learning how to create a mouthwatering dish at one of the three cooking schools, picking up fresh produce at the local Farmers Market, choosing to dine at many of Alpharetta’s numerous dining options, or checking out events like the Taste of Alpharetta and Food Truck Alley, epicureans around the U.S. have started putting Alpharetta at the top of their lists of places to visit.
