Alpharetta Arts StreetFest Returning to Alpharetta for Three Day Festival

ALPHARETTA, GEORGIA – (February 27, 2017) – Nearly 100 artists from around the U.S. will fill the downtown streets of downtown Alpharetta May 27-29, 2017 to present their high-quality artwork at Alpharetta Arts StreetFest. This colorful festival is free to the public and features live jazz and acoustical music, cultural arts performances, children’s activities and festival cuisine.

Festival lovers and art enthusiasts from around the Southeast will enjoy three days of strolling through outdoor galleries filled with fine paintings, mixed media, photography, pottery, jewelry, textile, glass, wood, metal and paper art. After browsing the amazing art, take a break to enjoy a variety of festival cuisine. The event will be held on Milton Avenue between Main Street and Roswell-Canton Street with parking available at City Hall Parking Deck and Milton Center.

“Now in its 12th year, the Alpharetta Arts StreetFest is a three-day weekend filled with culture, food, activities and all kinds of artwork,” said Janet Rodgers, president and CEO of the Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau. “We are excited to welcome the artists from around the U.S. and we hope the event will bring in art lovers who will stay overnight to enjoy the weekend’s festivities.”

Plan to stay the weekend to explore other activities and attractions in Alpharetta. Stop by Food Truck Alley on Thursday, May 25, for cuisine from a variety of food trucks. Visitors can also stop by Topgolf Alpharetta to tee off with friends throughout the weekend or visit one of Alpharetta’s locally-owned shops featuring local artists.
