FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Free Photos with the Easter Bunny at the Alpharetta Welcome Center

ALPHARETTA, GEORGIA (February 9, 2017) – The Easter Bunny is coming back to the Alpharetta Welcome Center, 178 South Main Street, for free photos on Saturday, March 4, 2017 from 10 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Stop in for an individual or family photo with the Easter Bunny any time between 10 a.m. and 12 p.m. A photo will be printed onsite for you to take away and emailed instantly so you can share with family and friends. Please do not wear green. The photographer will be using a “green screen” and wearing the color will interfere with photo quality.

The Alpharetta Welcome Center staff will be on hand to offer special holiday refreshments along with awesome information about things to do in Alpharetta. This is a free event. No reservations required. “We are happy to have the Easter Bunny back in the Welcome Center again this year,” says Janet Rodgers, president and CEO of the Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau. “This event gives us the opportunity to talk with residents and visitors about how they can benefit from utilizing all the complimentary event planning services that are offered by the staff at the Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau.”

For those planning a sporting event, family reunion, wedding or other special event, the Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau can be a great help with its free planning services that include securing group hotel rates, welcome bags for guests and insider tips on facilities and vendors. For more information about these services, visit www.awesomealpharetta.com.

The Alpharetta Welcome Center is located at 178 South Main Street, Suite 200 and is the best source for information on Alpharetta and all that it offers in the way of shopping, dining, entertainment and recreation, for visitors and residents alike. Its hours of operation are Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
