A WALK TO REMEMBER

Come to Alpharetta, Georgia to celebrate the heritage that allows us the freedoms we experience each and every day. Remember that freedom is never free. Gather the family for a visit to the Walk of Memories located at American Legion Post 201.

Founded in 1946, Post 201 occupies 13 acres on Wills Road and exists to serve the country's war veterans. It is home to a memorial that pays tribute to U.S. veterans, family and friends through a walkway of almost 8,000 bricks inscribed with the names of Georgians who served in the Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force and Coast Guard. A collection of military equipment adds to this moving experience.*

While you are here, be sure to take the time to explore our dynamic city. With more than 250 shops and over 200 dining options, there is plenty to fill your days. Choose one of Alpharetta's modern and upscale hotels for a relaxing stay or take advantage of specially designed hotel packages found on our website at awesomealpharetta.com.

MEMORIAL

The only one of its kind in Georgia, this memorial represents conflicts from the Indian War to WWI to Iraq and Afghanistan. Wander the Walk of Memories to find bricks representing those killed in action, those who died of wounds, prisoners of war, sons of the Legion, as well as friends and family. Monuments along the walkway spotlight various conflicts, including WWII, Korea and Vietnam.

EXHIBIT

A tank, helicopter, jet and Navy gun are part of the exhibit. The M60 tank, used in WWII, weighs 93,000 pounds. The UH-1 Huey helicopter was flown during the 1968 Tet Offensive in the Republic of Vietnam and its pilot was awarded the Medal of Honor. A nearby plaque tells the story of its mission. Seventeen Medal of Honor recipients are honored in this area.

The 15,000 pound, 40mm Mark 1 twin gun mount on display was removed from the USS POLK COUNTY (LST 1084). The Air Force T-33 jet was used mostly for training by numerous countries during the Korean War.
