

Experience
Awesome
IN ALPHARETTA,
GEORGIA!

ALPHARETTA IS A Foodie PARADISE!

With over 200 dining experiences, Alpharetta has become a premier dining destination featuring almost every cuisine imaginable. From chef-driven dining concepts to locally-owned restaurateurs, acclaimed chains to irresistible sweet shops, Alpharetta is bound to please everyone's palate in your group!

DAY ONE

MORNING | Start the day with breakfast at Goldberg's in Avalon and try a cooked-to-order omelet with a fresh-baked bagel made in house while you people watch at one of the outside patio tables.

MIDDAY | Your next stop is a visit to Caffé Antico for a specialty cappuccino or latte. And why not indulge in a delicious cannoli made from scratch or authentic gelato from Bologna, Italy?

For lunch, enjoy an American meal and beverage at Avalon's Bocado Burger. Then spend the day browsing the shops at Avalon and shop 'til you drop!

AFTERNOON | After a day of shopping, it is time to relax at Barleygarden Kitchen & Craft Bar for a cold beer from one of their 64 rotating tap options. In the mood for ice cream instead? Proceed with caution to Jeni's Splendid Ice Creams. One lick of the rich flavors and uniquely smooth texture will have you craving it all the time!

EVENING | After a nice beer or sweet treat, head over to Avalon's Branch & Barrel, a chic gastropub featuring creative New American cuisine and signature cocktails. The Old-World dark wood interior lends itself to an ambiance that pairs perfectly with the bar's vast bourbon beverage selection. After dinner, you can relax and enjoy smores by the firepit or enjoy live music on The Plaza lawn.

Exciting global entrees burst with exotic flavors.

Try the latest in cutting-edge dishes. Savor the most delectable seafood or a perfectly sublime steak. Bite into gourmet burgers or share pasta inspired by a limitless imagination. True Southern comfort favorites will have your lips a-smackin'.

DAY TWO

MORNING | Make your way over to the Egg Harbor Cafe and enjoy a homemade breakfast. Then, work up an appetite for your next stop by shopping at North Point Mall and the surrounding area where you will find your favorite well-known retailers and an innovative LEGO® Store.

MIDDAY | For a casual bite with a view, visit Topgolf Alpharetta's rooftop terrace for appetizers and craft cocktails. Swing a few clubs for a fun game in one of the climate-controlled golf bays while you are there. After the gaming competition, head to the boutiques around the North Point area such as Honey & Hazel, Nordstrom Rack, REI and Versona.

AFTERNOON | Jekyll Brewing, Alpharetta's first brewery, features a taproom to taste samplings of their well-known draughts. Continue the tasting over to Currahee Brewing Company and try one of their house-made beers!

EVENING | Beer tasting all afternoon sure does give one a big appetite. Finish the night at Salt Factory Pub in downtown Alpharetta for classic comfort food with an international twist. If you are looking for a night cap, stop by MADE Kitchen and Cocktails for one of the barista's specialty made drinks.

DAY THREE

MORNING | Enjoy a specialty breakfast at J. Christopher's located on Windward Parkway. Enjoy delicious dishes from strawberry crepes to sausage and gravy and everything in between.

MIDDAY | Satisfy cravings you didn't know you had at Pure Taqueria. Try their award-winning margaritas, "can't wait for a second bite" fresh fish tacos and unreal corn-mesa cakes. If Mother Nature allows, make sure you are seated on the patio so you can enjoy Alpharetta's awesome weather!

AFTERNOON | If you have a sweet tooth, Da Vinci's Donuts is your next stop. The local shop bakes their goodies daily for patrons to enjoy. Looking for a gluten-free option? 2B Whole Gluten Free Bakery is located just down the street with fresh baked items including breads, cookies and scones.

EVENING | Last, but definitely not least on the foodie tour of Alpharetta is a culinary adventure at one of Alpharetta's cooking schools. Choose from Georgia's only Publix Apron's Cooking School or Williams-Sonoma Avalon. Classes range from basic knife skills to celebrity chef demonstrations.