

Experience Awesome IN ALPHARETTA, GEORGIA!

Make the whole family happy by starting your day with breakfast from The Original Pancake House, where the buttermilk pancake batter is made from scratch every day. Pancakes aren't all that's on the menu though – The Original Pancake House has a full menu of breakfast items for every craving like waffles, omelets, crepes, bacon and sausage, fresh fruit and so much more. Be sure to try the Dutch Baby while you're here – this signature dish is made from fresh German batter, topped with powdered sugar and served with fresh lemon wedges and whipped butter.

After filling up on breakfast, stretch your legs on the Big Creek Greenway. Big Creek Greenway is Alpharetta's 8-mile long, multi-use trail that runs along a lush creek watershed. Offering families a chance to enjoy the natural beauty of Alpharetta while biking, walking, or running on the paved pathway, the Big Creek Greenway is a perfect spot for parents to burn calories while the kids burn off excess energy.

Escape with your crew by trying to break out of one of Alpharetta's several escape room games. The city is home to two premier escape room venues, Urban Escape Games and Odyssey Escape Game. These nail-biting adventure rooms give families a chance to bond while racing against the clock to solve puzzles and escape from a variety of fictional scenarios like Jewel Heist or Prison Break. All ages are welcome, but children under 13 must be accompanied by an adult.

Head to Brimstone Restaurant & Tavern for delicious comfort food with international flavors. Brimstone offers a whole section of their restaurant just for family dining, making it an ideal spot for those with little ones. Enjoy an order of their famous wings, chow down on a tasty burger, or try one of their pita flatbreads for something new!

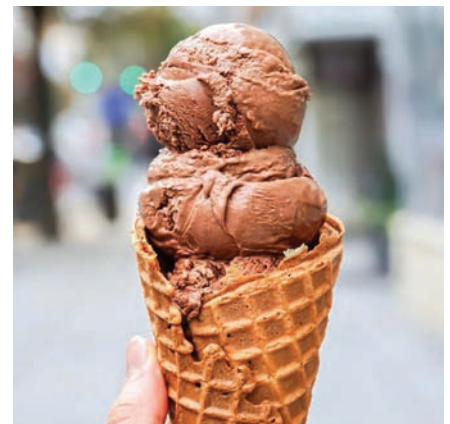

Shopping. Dining. History.
