 IN ALPHARETTA,
 GEORGIA!

Grab your girlfriends and start your day in Alpharetta with breakfast on the patio at Café Intermezzo in Avalon. Try one of their delectable gourmet breakfast items like the croque-madame, eggs benedict, or fluffy Belgian waffles. Be sure to check out the extensive coffee menu to find the perfect beverage to complement your meal!

After breakfast, treat yourself to a morning at Woodhouse Day Spa, where you can enjoy a diverse choice of services ranging from a simple manicure to a full body massage. Woodhouse Day Spa also provides services for skincare and even sleep treatments designed to help you rejuvenate and re-energize. Once you're fully refreshed, continue exploring the beautiful upscale community of Avalon, which features more than 500,000 square feet of retail space with high-end shops like CHANEL Fragrance and Beauté, Free People, Kendra Scott and so much more.

Take lunch to-go from Chicken Salad

Chick, where you can find a variety of chicken salad dishes as well as other Southern favorites like pimento cheese and egg salad, all served on wheat or white bread, or a flaky croissant. Then, head to Wills Park Arboretum where you can relax and enjoy a picnic lunch against the serene background of nature.

Spend the afternoon exploring charming Downtown Alpharetta, where more than 40 locally owned boutiques, coffee shops and restaurants line the streets. Pop into elleB Gifts to find the perfect home décor piece, then head to The Ballog for the latest fashion trends to refresh your wardrobe. Be sure to stop by Sis + Moon's for cheeky tees, funky accessories, and unique works of art. Enjoy dinner with a view at the new Jekyll Brewing City Center where you can dine al fresco on the rooftop while sipping a locally crafted sparkling seltzer or fresh brewed beer. Jekyll Brewing City Center offers a menu of coastal dishes like Low Country crab dip, oysters on the half shell, and chicken-andouille gumbo. After dinner, head to Fermented just down the street, and sip some vino during one of the store's fun and informative wine tastings! Fermented's expert staff can answer all of your wine questions while you enjoy a selection of their wines. Then, continue exploring Downtown Alpharetta, where you can typically find several opportunities to hear some live music for your evening entertainment.

With 200 dining options and over 250 shops in three distinct shopping districts, why not plan an Alpharetta girlfriend's getaway weekend? Alpharetta's 30 modern and upscale hotels are centrally located and convenient to shopping, dining and fun things to do!
