

Alpharetta

GEORGIA

24 HOURS IN Alpharetta

It's no secret that groups love to visit Atlanta. If you are headed to the ATL with your crowd, consider stopping in nearby Alpharetta for an overnight stay that offers everything a good group tour stop should. Located just 22 miles north of the city, Alpharetta's small-town charm, big city attractions and top-notch retail make the perfect spot for a quick 24 hour stop.

DAY ONE

1:00PM – Lunch in the North Point Area

What are you in the mood for? The North Point area has a selection of palate-pleasing, group-friendly dining options.

- Cajun Flair: Pappadeaux Seafood Kitchen
- Steakhouse: Ray's Killer Creek or Outback Steakhouse
- Family Style Italian: Buca di Beppo

2:30PM – Create your own action figure at MiniMe Factory.

One of Alpharetta's most unique experiences can be found at the MiniMe Factory. Revolutionary 3D printing technology gives you the chance to create mini figurines that are exact replicas of yourself. One of only three similar concepts in the country, the MiniMe Factory crafts a one-of-a-kind experience.

3:30PM – Sip & Savor

Pick the one that will best quench your group's thirst

- Hoppy Suds: Jekyll Brewing, Barleygarden or Currahee Brewing Company

- Vino: Fermented Wine Boutique or CRÚ Food & Wine Bar

5:00PM – Explore Downtown Alpharetta

If your group enjoys shopping, stroll them through the 40+ unique boutiques that downtown Alpharetta has to offer. Does your crew fancy history? Explore the Alpharetta & Old Milton County History Museum to learn Alpharetta's roots. Take the self-guided Alpharetta History Walk to explore 20+ locations that shaped Alpharetta into the city it is today. If art is your pleasure, the self-guided Downtown Alpharetta Arts Walking Tour features an array of sculptures that inspires the city's growing public arts scene.

6:00PM – Dinner on your own at one of Alpharetta’s 40+ downtown restaurants

DAY 2

9:00AM – Breakfast Picnic at Big Creek Greenway

Kick off your morning by grabbing breakfast to go for the group – choose buttery biscuit sandwiches from Maple Street Biscuits or delicious donuts from Scream’n Nuts. Fuel everyone up at the Rock Mill Park pavilion before hitting the Big Creek Greenway trailhead at the park’s entrance. Take a quick walk on the paved paths that follow the deciduous woods of Big Creek. Spot flora, fauna and wildlife such as deer and birds.

10:30AM – Shopping at Avalon

Alpharetta’s Avalon is more than just another place to go, it’s a place to be – a hub of activity that delivers the luxury of the modern South. With over 60 luxury retailers, Avalon is a shopper’s paradise. The community also hosts Rockefeller-inspired ice skating in the winter, holiday events, live music on The Plaza lawn from April-October, comedy nights and so much more. If there is a reason to throw a party, you can bet that Avalon is hosting one!

1:00PM – Lunch at Avalon

Avalon also features over 20 chef-driven restaurants so your lunch experience is as satisfying as the shopping.
