

Experience
Awesome
 IN ALPHARETTA,
 GEORGIA!

DAY ONE

MORNING | Get your health on with breakfast, brunch or lunch from First Watch. Their omelets are a must-try!

MIDDAY | Get creative at All Fired Up in downtown Alpharetta - make a pottery masterpiece that is both unique and purposeful.

AFTERNOON | For lunch with a view, head to Restaurant Holmes the restaurant interior and the menu are beautiful works of art. Holmes specializes in using locally sourced ingredients to create world class meals. If you're in the mood to imbibe, check out the impressive craft cocktail list filled with rotating creative recipes. The restaurant interior features stunning murals and paintings by popular Atlanta street artist Greg Mike.

Spend the afternoon exploring the downtown Alpharetta shops for artistic finds. Sis + Moon's is a boutique home to many local artists creations.

Don't miss The Treehouse at Sis + Moon's, a working art studio nestled in the back of the gallery and store. While strolling through downtown, don't miss the Downtown Alpharetta Arts Walking Tour with an array of sculptures.

Stop by the brand-new Alpharetta Arts Center, featuring multiple visual arts and clay studios, a digital media studio, black-box theater space, gallery exhibits and weekly art events.

EVENING | For dinner and a show, step into Alpharetta's exclusive jazz club, The Velvet Note. Hosting local artists and well-known jazz musicians, The Velvet Note is the place to be to enjoy a fabulous meal and acoustic melodies in an intimate living room setting.

DAY TWO

MORNING | Enjoy a quick and delicious bagel, breakfast or deli-style sandwich at Bagel Boys Café. Here, you will find fresh-baked goods and gourmet blends of coffee.

MIDDAY | Visit Chic Evolution in Art to check out works from prolific artists like Raphael Seguin, Niso Maman, Maarten Vrolijk, and many more. Oya Art Gallery is the city's newest gallery with a focus on American, Modern and Contemporary art from both young talent and renowned artists.

AFTERNOON | For lunch with an artsy side, stop into Vinny's on Windward for a meal that will satisfy your appetite with authentic menu options and your artistic side with walls filled with pieces from local artists. Most of the creations are for sale so be sure to snag one before the next art lover.

Shopping. Dining. History.
Arts. Music. Festivals. Games.
With so much to do, you'll have to stay the weekend!

Create a miniature version of you at MiniMe Factory! Step into the "MiniMe dome" fitted with over 100 cameras and scanners, capturing over 500 instant images. All captured images are rendered into a 3D digital model of YOU!

EVENING | Grab your picnic basket, fill it with goodies from Whole Foods Market at Avalon and specialty wine from Fermented. When you have everything you need for the perfect picnic, head over to Matilda's for the evening's entertainment. This funky show from local musicians will have you dancing the night away!

DAY THREE

MORNING | Start your day with a hearty breakfast from Another Broken Egg Café. Choose from a variety of made-to-order omelets and breakfast classics with a twist. (Insider Tip: Start with an order of biscuit beignets to kick off your meal!)

MIDDAY | Head over to Painting with a Twist to discover your inner artist. Order your favorite beverage from the in-studio bar and paint along with the artist to create your own work of art to take home at the end of the session. All painting supplies and artist instructions are provided. No art experience necessary. Simply be ready to have a "twisted" good time!

AFTERNOON | Enjoy a delicious lunch in a relaxing setting at Village Tavern – the ahi tuna appetizer is one of the best in town! Catch a matinee show at ACT1 Theater, Alpharetta's award-winning community theatre with a focus on wholesome entertainment.

EVENING | Have your taste buds travel abroad with the food from Rumi's Kitchen, serving creative Persian cuisine to Avalon's patrons. End the day with your favorite leading artist at Alpharetta's 12,000- capacity Ameris Bank Amphitheatre.
