A Weekend Full of Color During the Alpharetta Arts Streetfest

ALPHARETTA, GA - (April 22, 2022) – Memorial Day Weekend in Alpharetta will be bursting in color during the Alpharetta Arts Streetfest. Happening May 28 – 29, 2022, at The Grove behind the Alpharetta Community Center in Wills Park. More than 100 artists will have their creations for sale during this free to attend event.

Art enthusiasts can anticipate artists from all over the United States showcasing their work in the outdoor galleries. While attendees peruse from tent to tent across the Grove, they'll have the opportunity to speak with the artists to learn more about each piece of original artwork. The handmade and one-of-a-kind designs will be available for purchase making the items perfect gifts or finishing touches to your own collection.

Festival goers should come hungry! Food vendors will be onsite serving up festival eats and drinks to keep you fueled as you wander the grounds marveling each whimsical display. Kiddos can enjoy many kid-friendly activities including face paintings and interactions with parrots. Dogs are also welcomed to join their owners during this “pawsitively” wonderful event.

“We are excited to welcome artists from around the U.S. to showcase their creativity and talent to our community,” said Janet Rodgers, President and CEO of the Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau. “This incredible two-day weekend event is filled with culture, food and activities for the whole family! We invite visitors and people who are passionate about the arts to come to Alpharetta, stay the weekend and experience all the city has to offer.”

We recommend making it a trip or staycation in Alpharetta to celebrate the long Memorial Day Weekend. In addition to the Alpharetta Arts Streetfest, there will be live music throughout the city, family fun such as the Dino Safari...A Walk Thru Adventure and you can close out the weekend by attending the Memorial Day Tribute on Monday, May 30.
