

— awesome —
ALPHARETTASM
CONVENTION & VISITORS BUREAU

Media Contact

Kendall Bagley
PR & Social Media Director
678-297-2811

kendall@awesomealpharetta.com

Alpharetta Invites You to Visit – And Be Sure to Come Hungry!

ALPHARETTA, GA - (June 1, 2022) – Whether you’re checking out one of 200+ restaurants, sipping on brews and spirits at local hangouts, checking out a local food festival, or learning how to create mouthwatering cuisine at one of Alpharetta’s distinguished cooking schools, visitors will engage all of their senses in this foodie paradise.

No two dining experiences in Alpharetta have to be the same! Alpharetta grows by the week, adding new restaurants to the list of extensive epicurean options that residents and visitors alike adore.. Count on long-standing staples such as The Original Pancake House, Village Tavern or Cabernet Steakhouse to fulfill your foodie dreams. Looking for something sweet? Café Intermezzo, Scream’n Nuts and Crave Pie Studios will satisfy your cravings. If you need to quinch your thirst, look no further than Jekyll Brewing Company, The Painted Horse Tasting Room & Wine Bar or CRU Food & Wine Bar. Finish out your dining journey with locally owned, award-winning eateries like Smokejack BBQ, Pure Taqueria and Never Enough Thyme.

Divine dining does not stop with the restaurant scene. Sate your culinary curiosity by taking a class at one of Alpharetta’s three cooking schools. Publix Apron’s Atlanta Cooking School has a weekly line-up of classes that highlight date nights, specific cuisine, courses on kitchen utensil skills and more. Flour Power Kids Cooking Schools is ready to welcome your small chefin the making! Sign them up for a class like the “Chopped” class inspired by Food Networks successful show, where they are handed a box of ingredients and asked to create a dish in friendly competition. Williams Sonoma offers classes for all ages, like their Coffee Club where you can learn to elevate your latte art game!

“Food is part of what makes a great destination,” says Janet Rodgers, President & CEO of the Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau. “We feel honored to highlight the scrumptious dining experiences all throughout the community for visitors to come and enjoy. Truly, every part of Alpharetta is adorned with incredible restaurants and awesome eats!”

Plan your culinary adventure during one of Alpharetta’s dining-inspired events. Kick off the weekend with Food Truck Alley happening every last Thursday of the month April through October, where food trucks and great music tantalize your senses. Find delicious locally grown and homemade treats at the Alpharetta Farmers Market every Saturday through November. Savor the Boulevard at Avalon will take place on Sunday, June 5, with a picturesque tablescape that lines the boulevard for the ultimate alfresco dining experience. The inaugural Alpharetta Wine Festival will take place on Sunday, June 12. Vino-lovers will have the opportunity to try wines from all over the world! Make it all-inclusive at Taste Around Town, a VIP event celebrating Alpharetta’s top chefs at Union Hill Park July 22 and 23. This list is only the beginning!

With so much to taste, why not stay the night? To book your stay, and plan your delicious weekend in Alpharetta, visit www.awesomealpharetta.com.

Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau

The Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau serves as the official Destination Marketing Organization for the city of Alpharetta, Ga. With so much to do, why not stay the weekend? Book a hotel stay at one of the Alpharetta’s 30 modern and upscale hotels directly at www.awesomealpharetta.com. Alpharetta was recently named in the top 10 “One of the South’s Best Cities on the Rise 2022” by Southern Living Magazine and “One of the Best Places to Visit in Georgia” by Vacationidea.com.

###