Nike Brings Football Legends to Alpharetta for Nike Football Skills Camp

ALPHARETTA, GA - (June 24, 2022) – Stetson Bennett, Travon Walker and D’Andre Swift will be making their way to Alpharetta to be featured camp instructors at the Nike Football Skills Camp hosted at Milton High School, July 18-20.

Football players ranging in age from 8 years old to 18 years old are invited to register to improve on their skills this summer before football season begins in the fall. The camp will breakdown offensive and defensive players skills. Offensive player registrants will focus on hand-eye coordination, ball handling and position, passing drills and more. Registrants that are defensive players will learn footwork, man-to-man/zone knowledge and position skill work will be perfected throughout the camp. Finally, campers as a whole will learn the importance of teamwork, concussion safety and nutrition.

In addition to the lessons learned from the coaches and featured instructors, campers will have fun playing in the football competitions spread out over the course of the camp, as well as compete in a “7 on 7” tournament.

“The campers and their families coming in from out of town are sure to be impressed with Milton High School’s facilities and the incredible restaurants, shopping, attractions and hotels that await them in Alpharetta,” says Janet Rodgers, President and CEO of the Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau. “We hope that they not only leave with perfected skills from the camp, but many memories of a great experience in Awesome Alpharetta!”

Registration deadline for the camp is Tuesday, July 5. To register, book your stay and learn more about what there is to do in Alpharetta, please visit www.awesomealpharetta.com.
