Dance the Night Away During Alpharetta’s Brew Moon Festival

ALPHARETTA, GA – (May 12, 2023) – Downtown Alpharetta streets turn into a dance floor during the 2023 Brew Moon Fest in Alpharetta. This award-winning, bi-annual event invites attendees to enjoy live music, delicious bites and to sip on refreshing drinks from local favorites like Jekyll Brewing Company. From the bites to the brews and add in the tunes, Saturday, June 3, starting at 6:30 p.m. in downtown Alpharetta will be a rocking good time.

Georgia native, Leah Belle Fraser, will kick off the night performing original pieces for the crowd. Fraser’s favorite artists that inspire her sound range from Patsy Cline to Janis Joplin which you will undoubtedly hear throughout her music. Turning up the fun, the headliner for the event, Chuck Martin and the Line-Up, will get the crowd moving and grooving to their renditions of 90’s Country and Classic Rock hits. Attendees will sing their hearts out to longtime favorites under the full moon!

Attendees coming with a group should consider purchasing one of the six-top tables set up with a dynamite view of the stage. They are available for purchase at $180. Festival goers that would rather opt to bring their own chairs or stay standing, can purchase individual tickets for the event at $10 apiece.

“We love seeing the downtown streets filled with happy locals and visitors,” says Janet Rodgers, President and CEO of the Alpharetta Convention & Visitors Bureau. “Brew Moon Fest is the perfect excuse to plan a fun getaway or staycation in Alpharetta. Fill the weekend with shopping and dining, then enjoy your night dancing under the moonlight before heading to stay in any one of our lovely, 30 hotels.”
