Plan an Unforgettable Reunion During FREE Workshop

ALPHARETTA, GA - (September 11, 2023) – The Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau (ACVB) wants to inspire you to bring your family to Alpharetta, Georgia. Confidently raise your hand, and volunteer to plan your family’s next get together because the ACVB is here to help! Saturday, October 14, from 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m., the ACVB will host a FREE Family Reunion Workshop at Preston Ridge Community Center where you will receive all the best planning tips directly from our family reunion specialist.

Whether your family is local to Alpharetta, or you are inviting them in from out of town, the ACVB’s family reunion specialist will help attendees gain insight into the planning process and show how Alpharetta’s easy access, mild seasons, exceptional facilities and world-class shopping, dining and entertainment make it the perfect location for a terrific get together for the whole family!

“Alpharetta is perfect for families of all shapes and sizes. We love hosting the Family Reunion Workshop to help the family planners find the perfect itinerary for their crew.” said Janet Rodgers, President and CEO of the Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau. “We look forward to welcoming each family into Alpharetta’s warm hospitality, wide range of attractions and a full calendar of things to do, making it the ideal place to host a variety of group events.”

Once the family reunion planners have all the information they need to organize a successful celebration, the ACVB can help execute the event plans as a one-stop resource for FREE personalized event planning services. The experienced staff is available and ready to provide the best insider tips on how to make the event a success.

The Alpharetta CVB Complimentary Planning Services include:

- Providing insight on venues and parks in the Alpharetta area based on what groups envision for their reunion activities.
- Checking hotel rates and availability at all Alpharetta hotels based on the group's needs and provide one comprehensive list of options from the hotels.
- Assisting with hotel site inspections.
- Providing complimentary welcome bags with Alpharetta visitor information for Alpharetta hotel guests.
- Offering insider tips on securing the best activities, dining and vendor options for the event.
- Suggesting customized itineraries for attendees.

To reserve a seat at the upcoming free Family Reunion Workshop, where attendees will also learn how to plan other types of gatherings, including school reunion, military, corporate and professional organization events over a complimentary lunch, visit <https://www.awesomealpharetta.com/meetings-special-occasions/reunions-gatherings/family-reunion-workshop/> or contact the Alpharetta CVB reunion specialist, Hala Shell, at 678-297-2811x202 or at hala@awesomealpharetta.com.
