We Need Your Vote! Vote for Alpharetta as the #1 Culinary Town in the South for 2024

Help bring home the title and a front cover magazine feature by voting from June 3-16!

ALPHARETTA, GA – (June 5, 2024) – The Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau (CVB) invites the local community and Georgia food connoisseurs to vote for Alpharetta as the “Number One Culinary Town in the South for 2024” in the Local Palate’s Readers’ Poll. Click here to vote for Alpharetta.

The Local Palate has selected Alpharetta, Georgia, as one of the Top 10 Culinary Towns in the South for 2024, with Alpharetta being the only city selected from the state of Georgia. This prestigious recognition underscores Alpharetta's vibrant food scene, exceptional dining experiences and innovative culinary offerings. The publication is asking its readers to choose their favorite of the 10 selected destinations. Help us make Alpharetta number one!

Voting takes place from June 3 to June 16. This is your opportunity to help champion Alpharetta, the state of Georgia, and showcase culinary excellence on a national platform.

“We are thrilled to be recognized as a culinary hotspot,” said Janet Rodgers, president and CEO of the Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau. “This nomination reflects the passion and creativity of our local chefs, restaurateurs, and food artisans who make Alpharetta a remarkable dining destination. We invite residents and visitors to vote for Alpharetta and help us be named the number one foodie town in the South!”
