ALPHARETTA, GA – (August 13, 2024) – Discover the unparalleled charm of The Velvet Note, an intimate jazz venue in Alpharetta, where exceptional artists perform year-round. With its world-class talent and sophisticated ambiance, it’s the ideal destination for those seeking refined musical enjoyment.

Past sellout performances have featured award-winning songstress Chandra Currelley, Nashville-based singer Wendy Moten, and an Earth, Wind & Fire Tribute by The Ray Howard Band, among many other unforgettable shows.

“We are thrilled that The Velvet Note calls Alpharetta ‘home,’” said Janet Rodgers, President & CEO of The Alpharetta Convention & Visitors Bureau. “This exceptional venue is ideal for a romantic date night or a gathering with fellow jazz enthusiasts. If you haven’t experienced a show yet, we highly encourage you to visit soon. You will fall in love with the ambiance and look forward to returning time and time again!”

Upcoming evenings promise velvety smooth listening experiences with Jazz Guitarist Blake Aaron on August 18, 2024, The Human DJ Trio on August 25, 2024, and an exciting weekend with American Idol Winner Ruben Studdard on September 4 & 5, 2024. Enhance your evening by savoring delectable menu selections and classic cocktails while enjoying the music.

Tamara Fuller, owner of The Velvet Note, invites guests to join her for “An intimate evening of beautiful ambiance, enjoying great food and drinks while being up close with the musical artists. It doesn't get any better than The Velvet Note.”
