

Alpharetta Convention & Visitors Bureau Welcomes Paul Bodine to Board of Directors

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – June 2, 2005

ALPHARETTA, GA – The Alpharetta Convention & Visitors Bureau (ACVB) is pleased to announce the appointment of Paul Bodine, Area General Manager at Jamestown, to its Board of Directors.

Bodine serves as Area General Manager at Jamestown, where he currently leads property management and operations for Avalon in Alpharetta and Avenue East Cobb in Marietta. In his role, Paul oversees day-to-day operations, strategy, and community engagement for the destinations, ensuring the property teams deliver exceptional experiences for tenants and guests.

Paul's career trajectory at Jamestown highlights his growth and knowledge of retail and asset management. He began as Assistant General Manager at Avalon in 2016 before quickly advancing to General Manager. His success in leading the mixed-use development set the stage for his expanded responsibilities across multiple Jamestown properties.

Prior to his tenure at Jamestown, Paul honed his leadership skills in the golf industry for 15 years, developing a customer-focused mindset and a strong ability to manage teams and client relationships. His background in hospitality and operations has been instrumental in his ability to drive growth and success in his current role. With a passion for creating vibrant gathering spaces, Paul is committed to fostering innovation, collaboration, and excellence across the properties he leads.

Beyond his professional achievements, Paul is a dedicated family man who enjoys giving back to the community, spending time with his wife and two children, and hitting the golf course in his spare time.

“We are so excited to welcome Paul Bodine to the ACVB Board of Directors,” said Janet Rodgers, President and CEO of the Alpharetta Convention & Visitors Bureau. “Paul’s leadership at Avalon and his commitment to creating meaningful experiences align perfectly with our goals for Alpharetta! His insights will be instrumental as we continue to market and promote Alpharetta as a premier tourism destination.”
