

Experience
Awesome
IN ALPHARETTA,
GEORGIA!

ALPHARETTA IS A Foodie PARADISE!

With over 200 dining experiences, Alpharetta has become a premier dining destination featuring almost every cuisine imaginable. From chef-driven dining concepts to locally-owned restaurateurs, acclaimed chains to irresistible sweet shops, Alpharetta is bound to please everyone's palate in your group!

DAY ONE

MORNING

Kick off your morning with South City Kitchen's signature South City Breakfast with cheddar scrambled eggs, creamy grits, zesty tomato relish, and your choice of pecan smoked bacon, chicken sausage, or pork sausage. Expect elevated Southern cuisine in a welcoming atmosphere, perfect for starting your day in Alpharetta

MIDDAY | Your next stop is a visit to Caffé Antico for a specialty cappuccino or latte. And why not indulge in a delicious cannoli made from scratch or authentic gelato from Bologna, Italy?

For lunch, enjoy an American meal and beverage at Avalon's Ted's Montana Grill. Then spend the day browsing the shops at Avalon and shop 'til you drop!

AFTERNOON | After a day of shopping, it is time to relax at Barleygarden Kitchen & Craft Bar for a cold beer from one of their 64 rotating tap options. In the mood for ice cream instead? Proceed with caution to Jeni's Splendid Ice Creams. One lick of the rich flavors and uniquely smooth texture will have you craving it all the time!

EVENING | After a nice beer or sweet treat, head over to Avalon's Branch & Barrel, a chic gastropub featuring creative New American cuisine and signature cocktails. The Old-World dark wood interior lends itself to an ambiance that pairs perfectly with the bar's vast bourbon beverage selection.

DAY TWO

MORNING | Make your way over to the Original Pancake House and enjoy a homemade breakfast. Then, work up an appetite for your next stop by shopping at North Point Mall and the surrounding area where you will find your favorite well-known retailers.

MIDDAY | For a casual bite with a view, visit Topgolf Alpharetta's rooftop terrace for appetizers and craft cocktails. Swing a few clubs for a fun game in one of the climate-controlled golf bays while you are there. After the gaming competition, head to the boutiques around the North Point area such as LOFT, Nordstrom Rack, REI and Jos. A Bank.

DAY TWO

AFTERNOON | Stop in for a flavorful lunch at Local Expedition Wood-Fired Grill, located just off Windward Parkway, where globally inspired dishes are cooked over real wood fire. Build your own plate with options like smoked pulled pork, grilled chicken, and veggie sides.

Savor every bite on a culinary journey through Alpharetta, where bold flavors and inventive dishes take center stage. Whether you're sipping craft cocktails on a cozy patio or ending the day with a decadent dessert, Alpharetta serves up a rich blend of comfort and creativity in every meal.

EVENING | Beer tasting all afternoon sure does give one a big appetite. Finish the night at The Standard in downtown Alpharetta for classic comfort food. If you are looking for a night cap, stop by Roaring Social for one of the barista's specialty made drinks.

DAY THREE

MORNING | Enjoy a specialty breakfast at J. Christopher's located on Windward Parkway. Enjoy delicious dishes from strawberry crepes to sausage and gravy and everything in between.

MIDDAY | Satisfy cravings you didn't know you had at Pure Taqueria. Try their award-winning margaritas, "can't wait for a second bite" fresh fish tacos and unreal corn-mesa cakes. If Mother Nature allows, make sure you are seated on the patio so you can enjoy Alpharetta's awesome weather!

AFTERNOON | If you have a sweet tooth, Vincent Bakery is a fresh Korean bakery serving up treats, boba drinks, and espresso favorites. The local shop bakes their goodies daily for patrons to enjoy. Looking for a gluten-free option? 2B Whole Gluten Free Bakery is located just down the street with fresh baked items including breads, cookies and scones.

EVENING | Last, but definitely not least on the foodie tour of Alpharetta is a culinary adventure at one of Alpharetta's cooking schools, Williams-Sonoma Avalon.