

Experience
Awesome

IN ALPHARETTA,
GEORGIA!

FOR THE Young AT HEART!

Experience the charm of Alpharetta, a welcoming destination where senior travelers can enjoy scenic strolls, rich culture, and delicious Southern dining. This itinerary offers a relaxing and enriching way to explore the best of the city at your own pace.

DAY ONE

MORNING | Start your morning in Downtown Alpharetta with a rich, handcrafted brew at Boarding Pass Coffee. Their signature "Espresso do Murilo" offers a bold, smooth start to the day in a cozy, aviation-themed setting. Then head just down the street to Flatlands Bourbon & Bayou, where their Cajun-inspired breakfast menu featuring dishes like Crab Cake Benedict and savory shrimp and grits offers bold Southern flavors that will fuel you for a full day of exploring.

MIDDAY | Enjoy the beautiful Georgia weather at Topgolf, Alpharetta's premier golf entertainment complex. No experience is needed to compete in point-scoring games over cocktails. After swinging the clubs, grab lunch while overlooking Alpharetta on the rooftop patio.

AFTERNOON | Have a sweet tooth? Visit Beignets and Brew, where you can find fresh beignets and locally roasted coffee served all day.. Looking for a healthier option to accommodate allergies and dietary restrictions in the group? 2B Whole Gluten Free Bakery in downtown has plenty of delicious gluten-free, dairy-free, nut-free, and low-glycemic options available for the crowd.

Enjoy a walkable shopping experience in downtown Alpharetta, where tree-lined sidewalks and inviting storefronts set the tone for a delightful day out. Start your outing at La Bella Maison, filled with unique gifts, stylish accessories, and tasteful home décor.

Then, browse the eclectic art and handmade goods at Sis + Moon's, Korner Soak, Mountain High Outfitters, Clothes Horse Men's Apparel and Comeback Vinyl.

Active Adult Option:
After a pleasant shopping excursion, take a scenic walk along the Alpha Loop, a multi-use trail that connects key destinations in Alpharetta, including the downtown district and Avalon. Ideal for a leisurely stroll, the Alpha Loop offers wide, paved pathways with gentle slopes, plenty of shaded spots, and public art installations along the way.

Shopping. Dining. History.
Arts. Music. Festivals. Games.
With so much to do, you'll have to stay the weekend!

DAY TWO

MORNING | Start the day with breakfast at the Hen Mother Cookhouse where you can order your favorite homemade breakfast items. The restaurant also has a private room for your group and special menu items for senior citizens.

MIDDAY | Find your artsy side with a private art class at All Fired Up in downtown Alpharetta. Take a break for lunch at Crust Pasta and Pizzeria. All sauces and dough are made fresh and in-house. Spend the afternoon exploring the downtown Alpharetta shops for artistic finds. After lunch, cross the street to explore the Alpharetta & Old Milton County History Museum. The museum covers the history of Alpharetta, from its earliest days as Cherokee Indian territory, through its remarkable emergence as one of the nation's most vibrant high tech cities.

*Not open weekends

AFTERNOON | Imagine a relaxing afternoon in the early 1900's while visiting the Mansell House and Gardens. Call ahead to arrange a group tour by a member of the Alpharetta Historical Society.

Active Adult Option: Tour the Walk of Memories and the Alpharetta Veterans Memorial behind City Hall. Or take the Alpharetta History Walk through downtown Alpharetta. Free brochures can be picked up at the Alpharetta Welcome Center to help guide you on your adventure!

EVENING | Enjoy dinner and a show at Alpharetta's private living room setting jazz venue, The Velvet Note. Kick back and relax as some of the big names in jazz serenade you in a setting that reminds you of your own home.

DAY THREE

MORNING | Grab a light breakfast in the comfort of your Alpharetta hotel.

MIDDAY | Enjoy a leisurely lunch at Rumi's Kitchen at Avalon, where Persian flavors meet upscale, relaxed dining. Be sure to request a seat on the outdoor patio, it's the perfect spot to soak in the Avalon atmosphere while savoring every bite.

Active Adult Option: Spend the afternoon exploring Avalon's shopping and entertainment options.

EVENING/DINNER | Start your evening with an unforgettable dining experience at Luci's Ristorante Italiano. Known for its elegant ambiance, premium cuts, and signature sides, Luci's offers the perfect setting to relax and indulge.

After dinner, take a short ride to Helium Comedy Club for an evening of laughter and live entertainment. The club features a rotating lineup of top national and regional comedians in an intimate setting.