Alpharetta Earns 20 Best of North Atlanta Honors

ACVB's 14th consecutive Best Information Services win is joined by honors for Alpharetta restaurants, retailers, services, events and attractions.

ALPHARETTA, GA — Sep. 30, 2026 — For the 14th consecutive year, the Alpharetta Convention & Visitors Bureau (ACVB) has been named Best Information Services recipient in Appen Media Group's 2026 Best of North Atlanta awards. Along with the ACVB's honor, Alpharetta shopping, dining and entertainment businesses earned top recognition in 19 other categories, highlighting the many memorable experiences that continue to make Alpharetta a favorite destination in North Metro Atlanta.

"We're honored to be recognized once again among North Atlanta's best," said Janet Rodgers, President and CEO of the Alpharetta Convention & Visitors Bureau. "This award reflects the incredible restaurants, shops, hotels and attractions that make Alpharetta a destination people love. It's especially rewarding to know that residents and visitors value the work we do to connect people with the best experiences our community has to offer.

We're grateful to everyone who nominated and voted for us, and proud to celebrate alongside our fellow Alpharetta winners who help showcase the very best of our city."

Presented annually by Appen Media Group, the Best of North Atlanta awards invite community members to nominate and vote for their favorite local businesses, services and events. This year's Alpharetta honorees reflect the variety of experiences in the city, from locally owned dining and distinctive shopping to personal services, live music, outdoor recreation and community events.
